

No: 67

Date: 11/1/1996

Name: Richard Gilliland

President of Metropolitan Community College at the time, Gilliland had built a reputation for building the college. Gilliland was an avid bird watcher, musician and amateur ham radio operator, all indicated in the drawing. In the Face drawing, Metro students are indicated in the background with a chef, computer operator, business person, nurse and welder.