

#92 U.S. Rep. Lee Terry and Lee Terry
August 2003

The Lee Terrys were the first father-son “Face” duo to be honored as “Faces.” Lee Terry the father has been active in politics as a candidate and consultant. He was appointed Douglas County election commissioner in 1980. He also had a 25-year broadcasting career and was KETV news director and news anchor for more than 17 years. The senior Terry was known for his impassioned editorials. Son U.S. Rep. Lee Terry was then in his second term in the House of Representatives, first elected in 1998 to represent Nebraska’s Second District. He had served as an Omaha attorney and also served on the Omaha City Council. Among the roasters was former Mayor Hal Daub and Z-92’s Todd-n-Tyler.
