

No: 21

Date: 12/1/1982

Name: Lyell Bremser

Some people say nobody has been able to replace the late Lyell Bremser of KFAB Radio as The Voice of the Huskers. He broadcast University of Nebraska-Lincoln football games over KOIL and KFAB for 45 seasons, 1939-1983. "Mr. Football" is leaning out of the Press Box at a packed Memorial Stadium wearing a headset with a satellite hookup. Shown are some of the nicknames he gave players, such as: "Guy the Fly" and "Earl the Pearl." His signature phrase was "Man, woman and child!"