Name: Rosalee Roberts and Bill Ramsey

Two Omaha public relations legends and Press Club supporters were honored together. Ramsey is founder of the public relations agency, Bill Ramsey Associates. Roberts was a longtime employee of Bozell and, at the time of the unveiling, was vice president of community relations and executive director of the Childrens Hospital Foundation. Ramsey was OPC president in 1974. He also was recipient of the club's Distinguished Member award. His first book was "The Times I've Seen." He has since co-authored a history of Council Bluffs. Ramsey is wearing corporal stripes as a reminder of his service in the U.S. Marines during the Korean War.
